

Fri., Mar. 25, 1960

3 Honored At Clarkson

SARATOGA, Mar. 24—Three men from the Saratoga Springs area have been named officers of student organizations at Clarkson College of Technology at Potsdam.

Michael Finklestein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Finkelstein, Saratoga Springs, has been elected president of the Lewis House Board, a policy-making group of the student union. Finkelstein is a junior studying business administration.

Richard Hesser, son of Mrs. Ida B. Hesser, Corinth, is treasurer of the Lewis House Board. Hesser is a junior in industrial distribution.

Elwyn Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn W. Parker, Porter Corners, is new president of WNTC, the campus radio station. Parkers is a junior in business administration.